THE NEWS OF THE WEEK.

JULY 17.

Information received from Columbia is to the effect that the session of Congress may be prolonged and that there is yet hope for the ratification of the canal treaty.

The Pilgrims Club, of London, has appointed a committee to carry into effect the recent suggestion that a monument be erected to George Washington on British soil.

The service of the militia companies at Jackson will be so alternated that the Second regiment, the Louisville batteries and the unassigned infantry companies east of Louisville will have active service.

Advices from the city of Bolivar, Venezuela, Tuesday morning were that at that hour the Government troops were preparing to attack the city, which is in the hands of the revolutionists. Many houses are flying the American flag.

Leo N. Levi has given out a statement on the petition which is to be presented to the czar relative to the Kishinev massacre. It is desired that signatures be obtained for the next week. An official statement concerning the petition will be given out later by the State Department.

Labor unions in Evansville are waging war on members of the local militia company, because of the part they took in the recent riot. At least forty members of the company have been deprived of employment. Several members have been assaulted on the streets, presumably by members of the unions.

The school per capita for the coming year has been declared by Superintendent McChesney to be $2.60, there being available $1,947,163.19. During four years of the Democratic administration the per capita has averaged eleven and three-quarter cents higher than during the Republican administration.

John D. Rockefeller's long-expected raid on the stock market reached a dangerous crisis yesterday in the greatest slump since the panic of May 9, 1901. The movement, which is hostile to the Morgan interests, is a mystery. Bank presidents, after an investigation declare that there is no weakness whatever in the banking condition.

William Thacker, twice convicted of one murder and awaiting a third trial, was taken from the Flenburgsburg jail early yesterday morning and hanged to a tree. A previous attempt was made two weeks ago. The mob met with no resistance, and was brutal in its every movement. The authorities are contented for not saving Thacker's life.

JULY 18.

The United States Government has received assurances from China that twenty ports in Manchuria heretofore closed to the world's trade will shortly be opened. Russia has pledged herself not to oppose the opening.

At the request of the United States and German consuls at Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, the proposed attack by Government troops was deferred. President Castro is disposed to be merciful toward all the rebels, save their leader, Ferrera.

Russia will neither receive nor consider the American petition relative to the Jewish settlements at Kishinev according to information received by the State Department. He believed no further steps will be taken in the matter by the United States Government.

Secretary of War Root last night announced that West Point, Ky., has been selected as the location for the camp of instruction for the Department of the Lakes in October. Three thousand regular troops will participate, in addition to militia from the States of Kentucky, Michigan, Wisconsin, Indiana and Ohio.

The Pope's prediction that if his illness should prove fatal he would die on the festival of the Carmelite Madonna was not verified. Though he passed through the day, his condition, however, showed a change for the worse.

His physicians are confronted with the task of performing another operation that they fear will terminate fatally, in view of the patient's enfeebled condition.

JULY 19.

A destructive tornado swept over Illinois last night leaving death and ruin in its wake. At Streator five persons were killed and property worth $2,000,000 was destroyed.

The several steel mills at Ashland, Ky., which had been closed for nearly a year on account of a strike, resumed operations yesterday. The steel mills at Ironton, O., also resumed.

Negro ministers at Evansville adopted resolutions condemning negro dives and the colored criminal element of the city, to which is attributed the recent riot. The police were asked to keep the dives closed.

Gen. Bates will probably be in command of the troops at West Point, Ky., during the army maneuvers in October. The transportation, pay and subsistence of the officers and troops will be furnished by the Government.

United States Minister Conger has been recalled to Peking from New Chung, whether he went to investigate the situation there on account of urgent business connected with the American commercial treaty with China.

Officials of the Federal prison in Atlanta are in a quandary as to what to do with banker J. M. McKnight, of Louisville. Owing to his bad handwriting, the cannot assign him to clerical duties, and they are loath to put him in mental labor.

A warrant was issued yesterday for the arrest of George W. Beavers, late chief of the salaries and allowance division of the Post-office Department, charging him with accepting a bribe. The warrant has not been served, as his whereabouts is unknown.

The official correspondence on the East British petition has been made public by the State Department, showing that Russia's answer of declination was made the same day. Mr. Biddle inquired whether the petition would be received. The document, signed by many distinguished men, will now become a Government record.

The armistice between revolutionists in the beleaguered city of Ciudad Bolivar, Venezuela, and the Government forces surrounding it, terminated at midnight and the threatened attack on the city is hourly expected. The State Department will assert sovereignty over the islands off the coast of Borneo, now in the possession of the United States, but claimed by Great Britain. The islands have strategic importance, and the United States will not part with them.

Pope Leo held his own during yesterday and last night, but his physicians realize that there is a gradual sinking, they say, to general conditions rather than a specific cause. No doctors was shown by the Pontiff yesterday to receive visitors and he was attended only by his doctors and servants.

The total number of automatic cashiers supplied the Government by a Wisconsin concern, and out of which transaction the recent indictment of George W. Beavers grew was 527. The Post-office Department paid $100 for the same machines that sold in the open market for $123. A commission of $100 was paid on each machine, and of this sum the agent for the company received $50.

This has long been regarded as one of the most dangerous and fatal diseases to which infants are subject. It can be cured, however, when properly treated. Catarrh of the Stomach. When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus, instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called Catarrh of the Stomach. For years I suffered with Catarrh of the Stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—J. R. Rhoads, Coppell, Tex. Sold by Louisa Drug Co. J. D. Biggs Mgr.

Suspicion: A feeling that makes you try to find out something you don't want to know.—Anon.

The Foundation of Health. Nourishment is the foundation of health—life—strength. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure is the one great medicine that enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest assimilate and transform all foods into the kind of blood that nourishes the nerves and feeds the tissues. Kodol lays the foundation for health. Nature does the rest. Indigestion, Dyspepsia, and all disorders of the stomach and digestive organs are cured by Kodol. Sold by Louisa Drug Co. J. D. Biggs Mgr.

Attention is the stuff that memory is made of, and memory is accumulated genius.—Lowell.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflamed tissues to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost sense of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tired of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cents. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren Street, New York, will mail it.

A late and merry evening often makes a sad morning.—Thomas a Kempis.

GOV. BECKHAM

Replies to and Defies his Critics in Assassination Matters.

"Now, let us turn our attention for a while to those people who exulted in the death of William Goebel, and who today would rejoice to see every citizen of Breathitt county murdered and every house burned if it would make for them some political capital against me and against the Democratic party. There was a report that when the unfortunate Marcum lay dying on the spot where he had been shot, Curtis Jett in a little while afterward came around, stood over the dying man, with an assumed air of gravity, and said: 'This is an awful thing.' So there are today some Republican papers and leaders in Kentucky who look at Breathitt and say: 'This is an awful thing.'"

"Certain newspapers and men who applauded the assassination of Kentucky's Governor and a reign of terror in the State capital now pretend to be wonderfully shocked and disturbed over the condition of affairs in Breathitt. 'As a Democrat, I am proud of the fact that the Democratic press and the Democratic people of the State denounce crime and lawlessness, regardless of politics, and have been unanimous in their condemnation of the assassination of Mr. Marcum, even though he happened to be a Republican leader.'"

A WONDERFUL CONTRAST.

"The Democratic party in Kentucky has no sympathy with crime, no matter who may be the criminal. No Democratic paper and no Democratic person has yet sought to take up subscriptions to defend the assassin of Marcum. On the contrary, they have thrown their whole influence to the effort to have those assassins punished. What a wonderful contrast have they shown with the conduct of the Republican press when Goebel was murdered and the entire Commonwealth seemed to be on the verge of revolution and anarchy. Had the Republican party shown the same eagerness to punish his assassins as the Democrats have shown in their desire to see Marcum's assassins punished, then that atrocious crime of over three years ago would now be avenged, although it would have cost the Republican party the loss of some of its most distinguished leaders. Did they shed a tear or show the least sympathy for him after he had fallen from the assassin's bullet? Every citizen of Kentucky knows that they did not; and that, on the contrary, when poor Goebel lay suffering with the awful agonies of death from his wound, the Republican officials sent a lot of their militia and stationed them immediately under his window, that with their boisterous conduct and noisy demonstrations they might disturb and harass the last hours of the fallen leader whom they could not defeat except by assassination.

"All honor to the Democratic press and the Democratic people of Kentucky because they have not recognized any politics in this Breathitt county matter, but have with unanimity demanded that the guilty be punished, regardless of all such questions. THEIR DENUNCIATION IS PRAISED. 'The effort of certain Republicans to make a political issue of this is so miserable and so despicable that it is hardly worthy of notice, for they must first wash their hands of blood before they attempt to pose as the apostles of law and order. It is from such as these that I have received the most bitter attacks and the most willful misrepresentations about my official conduct. It has been done not because of any just criticism of my administration as Governor, but because of the fact that I am the Democratic nominee for that office, and about to enter a campaign for re-election.

"Jim Howard, the three convicted murderer of William Goebel, who, when he could not assassinate a man for hire, would shoot one for pasture, is the petted beneficiary of their liberal donations, and is lauded with slavish adulation, his cell decorated with flowers and his savage face the object of admiration by those who love him because they believe he murdered in cold blood the man whom the Democrats of Kentucky had elected to be their Governor. Their censure of me is enormous, their denunciation is praise.

"I do not speak of the mass of Republicans of Kentucky, who, I believe, do not approve of crime and lawlessness of any kind, but I refer to those whose bitterness and malignancy would place upon me the responsibility of the condition of affairs in Breathitt, when I have endeavored with all the power in my hands to restore peace in that county, just as I tried, three years ago, to restore peace throughout Kentucky in the unfortunate conditions then existing.

PARDON CHARGES DENIED. "The Republican organ of Kentucky at Louisville, by a deliberate plan of misrepresentation and abuse, and by falsification of records, has led in these attacks. It is a paper known as a notorious blackmailer and professional slanderer, and has tried by changing its name, without altering its policy, to cover up the infamy of its past history. It has falsely and willfully stated that I have turned loose by pardon twenty-seven criminals from Breathitt county, and that such use of the pardoning power has been the cause of lawlessness in that county. The records show that I have granted pardons in only seven such cases, in one case two men being pardoned. In every one of these cases the strongest possible reasons for executive clemency are shown. In every one of them, except one, a case where the sentence was only one year, and a case where it was shown that the offense was no more than a misdemeanor and the prisoner had served a large part of his term. Commonwealth's Attorney Hyrd, the vigorous and fearless prosecutor, asked for the pardon. In all of them except one, where the sentence was two years, the Circuit Judge asked for the pardons. In addition to these are strong statements from jurists, the County Attorney and other officials and citizens. I would be glad to see the records in all of these cases published in full, that the people might see with what good reasons I acted. In not a single case can the slightest possible connection be shown to the present feudal troubles of that county.

GOV. BRADLEY'S PARDONS. "My distinguished predecessor, Gov. Bradley, also pardoned seven felony cases from that county, and one more where there was a change of venue to Clark county. This was the case of Cardwell, who killed John Hargis, a brother of the present County Judge of Breathitt, who was convicted and sentenced to the penitentiary for manslaughter, but was pardoned before he was ever sent to prison. This was done upon the request of six of the jurors and some of the county officials of Clark. Cardwell was a Republican, as he shows in record, but no one has ever claimed that Gov. Bradley was influenced by politics in the matter, and I do not believe any one has ever said that this pardon or any other issued by him had anything to do with these feudal troubles.

RECALLS CLAY COUNTY. "Just for the sake of comparison in this matter, let us look at Clay county for awhile. In the last year of Gov. Bradley's administration a few months before the expiration of his term, the condition of affairs in that county was worse than in that in Breathitt. Crime and lawlessness were rampant, the courts were powerless, some of the officials were supposed to be in sympathy with the law-breakers, troops were ordered there, Tom Baker, the leader of one faction, was shot and killed while surrounded with soldiers, his assassin was never arrested, though generally known, and the situation was deplorable.

"Have the people forgotten about this trouble? Did they pardon anything to do with it? I never heard anyone say so. I certainly do not intend to criticize my predecessor about pardons or any other official act. I credit him with acting conscientiously in all such matters, but let us see, as this feature has been raised, what was his record in Clay county. It shows that nine felons were pardoned by him, six of them being cases of manslaughter, and that he also pardoned before trial twenty-five misdemeanor cases. I do not recollect these matters to reflect in the least upon him, but simply to show how unjust and unfair has been the criticism of me by the Republican papers.

STANDS ON HIS RECORD.

"I have been extremely cautious in all pardon matters, but like every other Governor, I may at times have been imposed upon and made mistakes. However, I am perfectly willing that my record in the matter shall stand in the full light of public view and I am not afraid of its examination and comparison. Without criticizing any of my honorable predecessors I know that it can be shown that none of them ever used the pardoning power less than I have done. I would not make this statement of facts but for the reason that so many falsehoods have been circulated about the matter by Republican organs in their desperate and slanderous efforts to find some issue

BUSY HOUSEWIVES.

Pe-ru-na a Prompt and Permanent Cure for Nervousness.

MRS. LULU LERNER.

Mrs. Lulu Lerner, Stoughton, Wis., says: "For two years I suffered with nervous trouble and stomach disorders until it seemed that there was nothing to me but a bundle of nerves. 'I was very irritable, could not sleep, rest or compose myself, and was certainly unfit to take care of a household. 'I took nerve tonics and pills without benefit. When I began taking Pe-ru-na I grew steadily better, my nerves grew stronger, my rest was no longer fitful, and to-day I consider myself in perfect health and strength.

"My recovery was slow but sure, but I persevered and was rewarded by perfect health."—Mrs. Lulu Lerner.

Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty, recent Superintendent of the W. C. T. U., headquarters, at Galesburg, Ill., was for ten years one of the leading women there. Her husband, when living, was first President of the Nebraska Wesleyan University at Lincoln, Neb.

In a letter written from 401 Sixty-seventh street, W. C. Chicago, Ill., she says: "I would not be without Pe-ru-na for ten times its cost."—Mrs. Anna B. Fleharty.

"Health and Beauty," a book written by Dr. Hartman, on the phases of catarrh peculiar to women, will be sent free by The Pe-ru-na Medicine Co., Columbus, Ohio.

A weed is a plant whose good qualities we have not yet discovered.—Emerson.

Very Remarkable Cure of Diarrhoea. "About six years ago for the first time in my life I had a sudden and severe attack of diarrhoea," says Mrs. Alice Miller of Morgan, Texas. "I got temporary relief, but it came back again and again, and for six long years I have suffered more misery and agony than I can tell. I was worse than death. My husband spent hundreds of dollars for physicians' prescriptions and treatment without avail. Finally we moved to Bosque county, our present home, and one day I happened to see an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy with a testimonial of a man who had been cured by it. The case was so similar to my own that I concluded to try the remedy. The result was wonderful. I could hardly realize that I was so well again, or believe it could be so after having suffered so long, but that one bottle of medicine, costing but a few cents, cured me." For sale by A. M. Hughes.

Life is a comedy to those who think—a tragedy to those who feel.—Walpole.

CAUTION!

This is not a gentle word—but when you think how liable you are not to purchase the only remedy universally known and a remedy that has had the largest sale of any medicine in the world since 1868 for the cure and treatment of Consumption and Throat and Lung troubles without losing its great popularity all these years, you will be thankful we called your attention to Boeck's German Syrup. There are so many ordinary cough remedies made by druggists and others that are cheap and good for light colds perhaps, but for severe Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup—and especially for Consumption, where there is difficult expectation and coughing during the nights and mornings, there is nothing like German Syrup. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size 75 cents. At Louisa Drug Co., Louisa, Ky. J. D. Biggs, Manager.

Life is a confusion of sounds between two awful silences.—Father Woodman.

Treat your Kidneys for Rheumatism. When you are suffering from rheumatism, the kidneys must be attended to at once so that they will eliminate the uric acid from the blood. Foley's Kidney Cure is the most effective remedy to this purpose. R. T. Hopkins, of Polar, Wis., says, "After unsuccessfully doctoring three years for rheumatism with the best doctors, I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and it cured me. I cannot speak too highly of this great medicine." Sold by Louisa Drug Co.
